DEAR WOODLAWN BAPTIST CHURCH - After much prayer and thought I have decided to retire my services as Head Garden Keeper of the Woodlawn Baptist Church Parking Lot Garden. The Garden was started 5 years ago by Deacon Jake McGuire for about $300. The following year I took over after Jake became a Pastor in Bristol, Rhode Island. The next four years I helped coordinate, plant, and harvest: tomatoes, squash, cucumbers, peppers, lettuce, perennial potatoes, snow peas and sunflowers. I estimate a total of almost 300 pounds of veggies harvested in that time. I thank all the volunteers who came forward over the years to help me. Without these individuals I couldn't have done this.

I am also retiring from cleaning the walks and parking lots. Because of economic hardship I am making this decision. I pray that a person or persons will come forward to take on these responsibilities. I will be willing to train anyone to do any of these positions. Thank you all for the privilege of serving the Lord and giving to the church in this ministry.

To God be the glory, Aaron Spilka
